River Mail.
We learn that the river mail will be carried by the steamer Lucy Coker, instead of the Hugh Martin.

Anti-School Whisky.
An enthusiastic Van Gilder man was boasting on the streets yesterday that he had plenty of whisky for the use of voters to-day.

Not a Candidate.
We are requested to say that Robert Kennedy is not a candidate for Alderman in the Seventh Ward, as has been reported.

To the Judges of Election.
Will the Judges of the election keep a memorandum of the tickets with "free schools" on them? We would like to know how many of these tickets are cast.

Retired.
Among the army officers retired in the War Department order, issued Tuesday, as given in the Baltimore Sun, we find in class second for officers retired because of honorable wounds received in battle, 2d Lieut. Samuel Walker, of this city.

Died of His Injuries.
John Coleman, who was wounded in a fracas in Chattanooga on Monday night by a man named Martin, died in that place yesterday from the effects of the injuries received. Coleman lately resided in Knoxville.

The Ball.
Last night at Spiro's Hall was a most pleasant affair. We dropped in for a moment and all were enjoying themselves to the utmost. Mr.
Casey, in the role of manager, knows how to make time pass agreeably.

Would Look Into It.
"See here, Jim," said a Southwestern Judge to a noted desperado, who had killed his third man that week, "if you kill any more fellows while court is in session, the grand jury will have to look into it."

Arrested.
Bon. Clark was arrested at Jonesboro' the other day, charged with complicity in stealing clothing and money from a man who was shot at Bean's Station some time ago. The Sheriff of Washington county had Clark's description, and by a little finesse, made him acknowledge his identity, when he at once seized and lodged him in jail.

For Sunday.
You will find a nice article of Irish Potatoes, Hominy, Krout, Beans, Peas, Dried Peaches, Dried Peas, Dried Apples, Flour, Buck Wheat Flour, Dried Cherries, Prunes, Raisins, Syrup, &c., for Sunday eating, at
J. L. HUBBARD'S,
West side Market Square.

The Third Ward.
The Germans of the city, a prosperous and numerous class, are entitled to a representation in our City Council. Mr. T. M. Schlefer, one of their number, is a candidate for Alderman in the third Ward, and we hope he will be elected.
He does not run as a partisan, but favors a prudent, safe administration of the city's affairs.
He is a warm advocate of the free school system, and is an honest man.

The Best Advertising Medium in East Tennessee.

The Queen Sisters.
A larger audience than that of the previous night, witnessed the performance of the Queen Sisters last evening. The programme was excellent, and Miss Laura, in the "Honey-moon," showed how exemplary a wife can be if she will. The programme throughout was admirable. The characters were well sustained, and we will say, without exaggeration, that this troupe is deserving of the public patronage.

Mr. J. B. Hoxsie.
The nomination of Mr. J. B. Hoxsie in the Sixth Ward is a good one, and we hope he will be elected. He runs, like Mr. W. A. Henderson, upon the basis of economy in the city administration, and for a public school system.
Mr. Hoxsie is unqualifiedly in favor of city schools, and will make an efficient Alderman.
His interests in the city insure that he will be a vigilant and faithful guardian of its prosperity.

Accidental Death.
Mrs. Morrow, living near Jonesboro', met with a terrible accident on Christmas day. Her horse becoming unmanageable, reared up and fell backward, crushing the lady to the earth in a shocking manner. She was immediately cared for by her friends who were accompanying her.
The most singular thing about the unfortunate occurrence, is the fact that the infant which she was carrying in her arms escaped almost entirely unhurt.

Family Groceries.
Captain M. D. Bearden has just opened at the old Tea Hong, on Market Square, one of the choicest supplies of family groceries ever brought to this city, embracing sugars, coffees, teas, cheese, pearl barley, rice, salt fish, including the most delicious smoked haddock, canned fish, fruit and vegetables, preserves, dried fruits; also a complete stock of wooden ware, and infact everything to be found in a first-class family grocery house. Captain Bearden will open today, and all who want groceries with the duty off will make a note of it.

Difficulty in a Bar Room.

Last night, about ten o'clock, a disgraceful scene was enacted in Keibler's bar room, in which B. C. Camp was very seriously injured by M. V. Bridwell. The facts, as we learn, are substantially these: Camp was in the room leaning on the counter talking, when Bridwell entered, and approaching from behind, struck Camp three terrific blows with brass knuckles, or some metallic weapon, cutting his head dreadfully and fracturing his jawbone.

Camp was perfectly crazed by the blows, and ran into the back room. Bridwell then left without molestation. Mr. Camp was removed to the residence of Capt. M. D. Bearden, and his wounds dressed by a surgeon.

A short time ago Camp and Bridwell had a difficulty, in which the former rather got the better of Bridwell, and the latter took this method of obtaining revenge. For this offense he has never been brought to trial, the police never having been able to see him, and they say they have gone to his place of business repeatedly for the purpose of arresting him, and as a matter of course, they could not arrest him last night, as none of them saw the difficulty, and the Recorder had gone home and they could not take him without a warrant.

A Cutting Affair.

A dreadful affray took place in Shirr's Cove, Greene county, last Saturday night, resulting in a man being cut and stabbed in a frightful manner. The Greenville Sentinel gives the following account of the difficulty:

There was a social gathering at the house of Daniel Wills, and during the progress of affairs, ill feelings that had formerly existed between the Wills and the Kellers were revived and a quarrel ensued. Robert Wills attacked Andy J.
Keller, and was by him knocked down, when Jacob Wills, Jr., Watson Vernon and Silas Hamb drew their knives and joined in the attack on Andy Keller, inflicting thirteen frightful gashes, literally cutting him almost to pieces. One stroke of a knife partially severed the large neck vein of Keller, which discharged a gush of blood before it could be staunch.

Keller, when last heard from, was in a dying condition. The attacking parties were under the influence of liquor. Only one of the guilty parties was arrested.

Personal.

Hon. John M. Cordell, of Scott county, is in the city.

Dr. Wheeler, senior editor of the Jonesboro'
Herald and Tribune, is in town.

The Bristol News pays the following deserved compliment to Capt. H. S. Chamberlain, President of the Knoxville Iron Company:

He is one of the very finest business men in East Tennessee, and has done more to develop the iron and coal interests in that section than any other gentleman with whom we are acquainted.
We have had heavy transactions with his company during the past three years, with the most satisfactory results.

Their iron is very superior and the quality and price of nails manufactured by them is such as has insured their introduction throughout a vast extent of territory. They have invested a large amount of money in Knoxville, and have infused into its business channels a degree of energy previously unknown.

Ward Boundaries.

For information of voters, we publish the following boundaries of Wards, as re-districted by the present City Council, Wards all beginning at Gay street, and extending east and west to the corporate limits, except the 8th Ward:

First Ward—Beginning at the river, running east with Cumberland street.

Second Ward—From the river, running west with Cumberland street.

Third Ward—From Cumberland to Clinch street, running east.

Fourth Ward—From Cumberland to Clinch street, running west.

Fifth Ward—From Clinch to Vine, running with Mabry street, east.

Sixth Ward—From Clinch with Vine to Second Creek, west.

Seventh Ward—From Crozier and Mabry streets, to the corporate limits, north and east.

Eighth Ward—From Crozier street west, embracing the depots, railroad shops and what is known as North Knoxville.

ing statement of the indebtedness of our East Tennessee railroads to the United States Government on the 1st of July, 1870:

pointed took place last evening at the Lodge Room, Grand Master Rodgers, and D. G. M.
Washburn officiating. The following are the

Death by Drowning.

The Greenville Sentinel says that Moses K.
Jones, a well known citizen of Greene county, was found dead in Chucky river, about four miles south of Greenville, on the 28th ult., supposed to have been drowned. On the evening previous, about midnight, he was seen going towards the river on his way homeward. His horse returning home without its rider, search was made in the morning, and above the ford of the river, in water not more than eighteen inches in depth, he was found with his head beneath and his feet above the ice. His head was b-used and his saddle was found on the opposite side of the river.

Torchlight Procession.

Last night a large number of the supporters of Col. Mariner marched through the principal streets of the city in procession, bearing transparencies inscribed with mottoes significant as regards municipal affairs, and showing light on the manner in which they had been conducted.
One of the most apposite was—"Our Mayor's salary. 8 Improvements in City Lots."

Another, "Dig Down Your Streets."
The procession was preceded by the Brass Band, which discoursed stirring music.

To Grammarians.

An exchange asks if the verb "is" being singular and "are" its plural, does it follow that Arabella is the plural of Isabella, and must the latter necessarily be as singular in disposition as in number, and if so, must Arabella always be a married woman, Isabella being single?

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

To the Voters of Knoxville.
Having been repeatedly solicited by the friends of education and by citizens without reference to party, to reconsider my determination, as announced some days ago, not to become a candidate for Mayor, I have concluded to do so; and, in response to the wishes of friends, hereby announce myself as the "Citizens' Free School" candidate for Mayor. In doing this, I am actuated only by a desire to further the cause of general education, and, if elected, will do my utmost to give an economical, prudent and fair administration of municipal affairs.
A. S. MARINER.

as a candidate for Alderman in the First Ward.

J. A. RAYL.

At the solicitation of many friends, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Alderman of the Second Ward of the city of Knoxville, at the election on Saturday, January 7, 1871.
M. F. SMITH.

To the Voters of the Third Ward.
Having been solicited through the columns of the CHRONICLE to become a candidate for Alderman for the Third Ward, I have, after personal solicitation from many voters, consented to become such a candidate. I make the race not as a party man, for I think that elections for municipal offices should be upon the merits of the candidates. I am in favor of city improvements, of an economical administration of corporation affairs, and decidedly favorable to a thorough system of public schools for the children of the city. I shall be glad to receive the support of the friends of these measures.
T. M. SCHLEIER.

Alderman for the Sixth Ward.
In answer to inquiries of many voters, I will say, that I accept the call and take this occasion to announce myself a candidate for Alderman

J. B. HOXSIE.

We are authorized by W. A. Henderson, Esq., to say that he is a candidate for re-election as Alderman from the Sixth Ward. Mr. Henderson makes the race at the earnest solicitation of many of the heaviest tax-payers of the city.
He has been a faithful member of the Board, and of all our political opponents we do not know of one we would rather see in the Board than Mr. Henderson.

To the Voters of the Seventh Ward.
I take this occasion to say that I am a can-

COMMERCIAL.

Knoxville Wholesale Market.
Review of the Produce Market for the week ending January 3d, 1871.

CORRECTED BY J. W. GAUT, MARKET SQUARE, KNOXVILLE, JANUARY 5, 1871.

There has been no material change in the market since our last report. The grain market is brisk.
Corn, oats, and wheat are in demand at fair prices.

There has been some inquiry in regard to bulk meat and lard, and some shipped at low prices.

The dried fruit trade is about exhausted. Some few apples remain in the country yet, but there is little demand for them. Peaches would bring a fair price if we could get them.

In wheat, we quote to-day: Good white wheat, well cleaned, would bring $1.00 per bushel, while an inferior article not more than 70c. Red and Walker wheat will sell at 80c.50, owing to the quality.

We still continue to buy Bonnet, and want all we can get.

WHEAT is readily taken at 85c.10 for prime white, 80c.50 for red, as to quality, and 90c.50 for Walker or Amber, as to quality.

CORN—at the present time there is a limited local demand at 47c.50 cents loose, and 62c.50 cents sacked.
OATS—Firm and in demand at 35c.50; loose sacked in depot by car load 34c.75.

Flour—Limited supply. The local trade is supplied at $2.75c.50 per sack. The shipment of this article to the South will depend much upon road freights.

BACON—No sales. Market unsettled.
LARD—12c.15; for shipment on cars.
BUTTER—Fair demand at 60c.50; for prime mixed 50c.50.

BUTTER—Ample supply. 18c.50.
EGGS—Worth 18c.50. Packed for shipment 22c.
EGGS—Dull. But little demand for shipment.

GREEN APPLES—Well selected, large, smooth apples are wanted at 75c.10 per bushel, for shipment.
BEAF CATTLE—Our butchers continue to pay 24c.50.
MUTTON—Worth 22c.50c.00 per head.
PORK HOES—Nominal. It is thought 6c.50c. gross, paid for early slaughtering.
